

Prayer of the Faithful
Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 21st and 22nd, 2024
Saturday, 5:00 am

For our Pope, who is the servant of the servants of God, we pray to the Lord.

For peace and harmony between those nations set against one another, we pray to the Lord.

For an end to jealousy and destructive competition among members of our families, we pray to the Lord.

For Christians working for the welfare and protection of children in our community, we pray to the Lord.

For the sick, including Walter Seletti, Sekar (say-car) Vanesan, Janet Appel and Nicole Hughes; we pray to the Lord.

For the prayers in our book of intentions, for those who have asked for our prayers, and for the prayers of all here; we pray to the Lord.

For Alice Burke and Rita Jespersen for whom this mass is offered and for all who have died, including Mary Davis; we pray to the Lord.

Prayer of the Faithful
Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 21st and 22nd, 2024
Sunday, 9:00 am

For our Holy Father Pope Francis, that he may keep the Church in the faith of Peter, we pray to the Lord.

For our elected representatives, that they may respect the right to life of the unborn, the helpless, and the aged, we pray to the Lord.

For consecrated contemplative religious, that men and women may be called to share their lives of self-renunciation and penance, we pray to the Lord.

For members of our community who suffer, that they may know the Son of Man who “was destined to suffer grievously,” we pray to the Lord.

For the sick, including Walter Seletti, Sekar (say-car) Vanesan, Janet Appel and Nicole Hughes; we pray to the Lord.

For the prayers in our book of intentions, for those who have asked for our prayers, and for the prayers of all here; we pray to the Lord.

For the People of the Parish for whom this mass is offered and for all who have died, including Mary Davis; we pray to the Lord.
